

Alex Yee - September 2015

Alex Yee is a Junior Triathlete and a second year A level student from South East London. After competing in a "Kids of Steel" taster triathlon at the age of 8, he joined the local triathlon club Crystal Palace Triathletes where he worked his way competitively to the top and is currently a named athlete on the Triathlon England Talent Squad. Running is Alex's strongest triathlon discipline and he enjoys the challenge of Cross Country Running during the off season.

In 2015 in addition to triathlon Alex was selected to run for Great Britain in the 3000m at the IAAF World Youth Championships in Cali - Columbia; and the Commonwealth Youth Games in Samoa.

Career Highlights

Current UK u17 5,000m record holder.

2015 - Ranked European No1 Youth in 3,000m (8m 14s) WYS* & 5,000m (14m 9s) EJS*.

6th IAAF World Youth Track Championships 2015- 3,000m

Selected to race in the Commonwealth Youth Games (Somoa) 5th-11th September 2015

2nd BTF Youth National Elite Duathlon (2014)

2nd BTF Youth National Elite Triathlon (2014)

2nd BTF Junior National Elite Aquathlon (2014-15)

2nd ETU European Junior Cup - Holten (2015)

1st ETU Tiszaujvaros European Junior Cup Semi-3 (2015)

Twice winner of the London Mini Marathon - Borough Challenge (2013 & 2015)

3rd u17 National Cross Country Championships, Parliament Hill (2015)

3rd u17 Inter Counties Cross Country Championships, Crofton Park (2015).

1st u17 Kent Cross Country Championships, Hythe (2014 & 2015)

1st u17 2XU Surrey Cross Country League (2014/15)

1st u17 3000m SEAA Track Championships, Crystal Palace (2014)

Facts

Birthday - 18th February 1998

Place of Birth - London, UK

Sport - Triathlon, XC and Middle Distance Track.

*World Youth Standard, European Junior Standard.